3. DISTRIBUTION CLASSIFICATION (SELECT ONE)

NORMAL DISTRIBUTION

Choose this option if you are over age 59½.

PREMATURE DISTRIBUTION

Choose this option if you are less than age 59½. You have 60 days to roll over the proceeds of premature distribution to another qualified retirement plan. If you do not complete the rollover within the 60 days period, the proceeds may be subject to taxes and early withdrawal penalties.

PREMATURE DISTRIBUTION UNDER KNOWN EXCEPTION

SUBSTANTIALLY EQUAL PERIODIC PAYMENTS: Choose this option if you are less than 59½ and distributions are to be paid under the equal periodic payment exception to the 10% penalty tax generally imposed on early withdrawals from qualified retirement plans, including IRAs. The additional tax is imposed on that portion of the distribution which must be included in gross income. The tax will not apply to distributions which are part of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for life (or life expectancy) of the account owner or the joint lives (or joint life expectancy) of such owner and their beneficiary. There is no guarantee that the remaining account value will provide lifetime income.

ELIGIBLE HIGHER EDUCATION EXPENSES: Choose this option if the expenses are for tuition, fees, books and supplies required to attend an institution for post-secondary education. The student may be you, your spouse, or your child or grandchild.

HOMEBUYER EXPENSES: Choose this option for a withdrawal used to cover first time homebuyer expenses. (Limit $10,000)

MEDICAL EXPENSES: Choose this option if the withdrawal is for medical expenses paid during the year and generally greater than 7% of your adjusted gross income for that year.

HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE: Choose this option to withdraw for health insurance coverage for yourself, your spouse and/or dependents. You must have been unemployed and received federal or state unemployment compensation payments for at least 12 weeks.

RETURN OF EXCESS CONTRIBUTION

Choose this option if you have made an excess contribution to your IRA. Excess contributions may be returned without incurring the 6% penalty at any time before the tax filing date of the year of which you have made the contribution. If the excess contribution has earned any investment income, this will also be returned in order to avoid the 6% penalty on that amount. However, any investment income returned is subject to the 10% early withdrawal penalty if you are under age 59½. You may choose to have the proceeds issued to you in the form of a check or applied to your IRA as a current year contribution.

7. INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING ELECTIONS

This section does not apply to nonresident aliens or to non-taxable distributions from Roth IRAs.

If you elect not to have withholding apply to your distributions, you are still responsible for payment of any tax due. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payment(s) are not sufficient.

Federal Income Tax Withholding

Federal taxes will automatically be withheld from distributions at the rate of 10%, unless you check one of the boxes below. You may change your withholding election on future payments. This is a federal law and not a company regulation.

- I do not wish to have federal income taxes withheld.
- Withhold federal income taxes at a rate of _____% (more than 10%).

You will be subject to a mandatory withholding if: (1) you fail to provide your social security number by the date of any distribution; (2) for distributions after the date the IRS properly notifies us that your social security number is incorrect; or (3) we do not have your U.S. residence address on file at the time of a distribution. Withholding is also mandatory for most payments made outside of the U.S. or its possessions or to nonresident aliens.

State Income Tax Withholding

Applicable ONLY to AR, CA, CT, DC, DE, IA, KS, ME, MA, MI, MN, MS, NE, NC, OK, OR, VT. In most cases, if federal taxes are withheld, mandatory state tax withholding will apply, unless you check one of the boxes below. Some states have additional requirements in order to opt out of mandatory state tax withholding, (e.g., Connecticut, Minnesota or Michigan). Consult with your tax advisor or refer to your state's tax laws for more information.

Notice to Connecticut and Minnesota Residents: There is a mandatory state withholding regardless of your federal withholding election unless you have provided Form CT-W4P (Connecticut residents) or Form W-4MNP (Minnesota residents) indicating an exemption to, or alternate rate of withholding.

Please select one of the following options:

- I do not wish to have state taxes withheld.
- Withhold state taxes at the rate of _____% of the total distribution, or in the amount of $_____ (Refer to your state for minimum withholding amount).

If you do not make an election, state taxes will be withheld from your distributions.
