and individually, as a “Trust”)

Audit Committee Charter
(As Amended and Restated Effective May 23, 2024)

I. Membership and Qualifications of the Audit Committee

On an annual basis, the Board of Trustees of each Trust (each, a “Board”) shall appoint the members of the Audit Committee for each such Trust, all of whom shall be Independent Trustees (as defined below), and shall select one member of each Audit Committee to serve as the Chairperson of such Committee. Each Audit Committee shall be comprised of at least two members; provided that for as long as MCN’s shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”), the MCN Audit Committee shall consist of no fewer than three members, as required by Section 303A.07 of the NYSE Listed Company Rules (the “NYSE Rules”). For purposes of this Charter, the term “Independent Trustee” means a member of the Board (i) who is not an “interested person” of any of the Trusts, as that term is defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and (ii) who has not received any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee from any of the Trusts, except compensation for service as a member of the Board of such Trusts or a committee thereof.² The Board of each Trust shall determine which members of its Audit Committee qualify as an “audit committee financial expert” (also referred to as an “ACFE”) as defined in Item 3 of Form N-CSR, and shall annually thereafter determine whether: (i) there have been any changes to such definition that would result in a previously qualified individual from no longer qualifying, or (ii) there are new Audit Committee members for whom no such qualification decision has been made. As a NYSE listed company, MCN is required to have at least one ACFE. The identification of an Audit Committee member as an “audit committee financial expert” does not impose on the member any duties, obligations or liability that are greater than the duties, obligations and liability imposed on Audit Committee members in general.

Because MF and USF are open-end mutual funds that hold themselves out as being in the same family of investment companies (collectively, “Open-End Funds”), service on the Audit Committee of one or more of the Open-End Funds is considered service for a single Fund company. Because MCN, although being part of the Madison complex of investment companies is a closed-end fund that maintains a separate identity from the Open-End Funds, service on the MCN Audit Committee of the is considered service for a separate fund company (separate and apart from service relating to the Open-End Funds).

¹ Refer to Section 303A.00 of the NYSE Rules for specific audit committee requirements applicable to MCN.

² The second part of this definition is derived from Rule 10A-3(b)(1)(iii) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which applies to MCN as a listed company. However, for ease of administration, this aspect of the definition of independence will be applied to each Trust’s Audit Committee.

Hereinafter, any references to a Trust or the Trusts shall refer to the above referenced investment companies, and any action to be taken by a Trust though its Committee or Board shall affect only that Trust, Committee or Board, unless otherwise specified.

- L. Whistleblower Reports; QLCC. (1) To establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of whistleblower complaints received by each Trust relating to accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters, and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of any Trust, the adviser or distributor of any Trust, or the administrator or sub-administrator of any Trust of concerns about accounting or auditing matters; and (2) to serve as the "qualified legal compliance committee" (also referred to as the "QLCC") of each Trust and in that capacity, to address reports from attorneys or auditors of possible violations of federal or state law or fiduciary duty;

In between regularly scheduled Audit Committee meetings, the Chairperson of the Audit Committee has the authority to grant pre-approvals of audit and permitted non-audit services; provided that any decisions of the Chairperson to grant pre-approvals shall be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting and provided further that the dollar amount of any such pre-approvals, individually and not in the aggregate, shall not exceed $25,000.

V. Role and Responsibilities of the Audit Committee

The function of the Audit Committee is oversight; it is management's responsibility to maintain appropriate systems for accounting and internal control over financial reporting, and the auditor's responsibility to plan and carry out a proper audit. Specifically, Trusts' management is responsible for: (1) the preparation, presentation and integrity of each Trust's financial statements; (2) the maintenance of appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles and policies; and (3) the maintenance of internal control over financial reporting, disclosure controls and procedures and other procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and related laws and regulations.

The independent auditors are responsible for planning and carrying out an audit consistent with applicable legal and professional standards and the terms of their engagement letter. Nothing in this Charter shall be construed to reduce the responsibilities or liabilities of the Trusts' service providers, including the auditors.

Although the Audit Committee is expected to take a detached and questioning approach to the matters that come before it, the review of a Trust's financial statements by the Audit Committee is not an audit, nor does the Committee's review substitute for the responsibilities of any Trust's management for preparing, or the independent auditors for auditing, the financial statements. Members of the Audit Committee are not full-time employees of the Trusts and, in serving on this Committee, are not, and do not hold themselves out to be, acting as accountants or auditors. As such, it is not the duty or responsibility of the Committee or its members to conduct "field work" or other types of auditing or accounting reviews or procedures.

In discharging their duties the members of the Audit Committee are entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by: (1) one or more officers of the Trusts whom the member reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; (2) legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the member reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or (3) a Board committee of which the Audit Committee member is not a member.

VI. Operations of the Audit Committee

A. Audit Committee Meetings. The Audit Committee of each Trust shall meet on a regular basis and at least four times annually (coinciding with the regularly scheduled quarterly meeting of the Combined Boards of the Trusts) and is empowered to hold special meetings as circumstances require. In addition to the regularly scheduled meetings, the Chairperson or a majority of the members shall be authorized to call a special meeting of the Audit Committee and send notice thereof.

- B. In-Person or Telephonic Meetings. The Audit Committee of each Trust shall ordinarily meet in person; however, members may attend telephonically, and the Committee may act by written consent, to the extent permitted by law and by the Trust's charter documents.
- C. Private Meetings. The Audit Committee of each Trust shall have the authority to meet privately and to admit non-members individually by invitation.
- D. Executive Sessions. The Audit Committee of each Trust shall periodically meet, in separate executive sessions, with representatives of Trust management and the Trusts' independent auditors. The Committee may also request to meet with internal legal counsel and compliance personnel of the Trusts' investment adviser and with entities that provide significant accounting or administrative services to the Trusts to discuss matters relating to any Trust's accounting and compliance as well as other Trust-related matters.
- E. Minutes. The Audit Committee of each Trust shall prepare and retain minutes of its meetings and appropriate documentation of decisions made outside of meetings by delegated authority.
- F. Quorum. A majority of the members of the Audit Committee of each Trust shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Committee. The action of a majority of the members of the Audit Committee of such Trust present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the action of the Committee.
- G. Adoption of the Audit Committee Charter. The Board of each Trust shall adopt and approve this Charter and may amend it on the Board's own motion. The Audit Committee of each Trust shall review this Charter at least annually and recommend to the full Board of such Trust any changes the Committee deems appropriate.
